

Leo Labbe elected superior of N.E. Sacred Heart Brothers

Brother Leo Labbe, S.C., has been elected provincial superior of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart for New England. He will replace Brother John Louis Collignon, S.C., whose term expires on June 15.

The election took place at a recent Provincial Chapter held in Fitchburg, Mass.

Labbe, known earlier as Brother Gerald, was born in Central Falls, R.I. He attended St. Cecilia Elementary School in Pawtucket, R.I., then Sacred Heart Academy in Central Falls, R.I. He entered the Brothers of the Sacred Heart and made his first profession on Aug. 24, 1959, and perpetual profession in 1965.

He began his educational career at Sacred Heart School in Andover, Mass., in 1961 and served at Bishop Guertin High School, Nashua, in 1972-73. He also taught in schools in Woonsocket and Harrisville, R.I., and in Fitchburg.

Labbe received his bachelor of arts degree from St. Michael's College in Winooski, Vt., and his master of arts degree from Assumption College in Worcester, Mass.

LABBE

Member of his Provincial Council are: Brother Roland Ouellette and Brother Frederick Bouchard, both of Nashua; Brother Raymond Reinsant of Woonsocket, R.I.; and Brother Robert Croteau of Lewiston, Maine.