STOCKTON (AP) — Word was received here of the death Tuesday of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward Noonan, Roman Catholic pastor in the bay area and Stockton for many years, in his native Ireland.

Noonan came to the United States for his ordination in Salt Lake City in 1914. After 10 years there, he served various churches in the bay area until 1943 when he became a pastor in Stockton. He was elevated to a monsignor in 1962 and retired last year to his native Waterford, Ireland.
